

Biography of John A. Zseller II

John Zseller is currently the Assistant Scout Executive for the Theodore Roosevelt Council in Nassau County, NY; John has a proven record of membership growth, fundraising success, campaign management, and staff empowerment that spans over 20 years.

John began his career as a District Executive in Greater New York Councils with the In-School Scouting Division, now Learning for Life. He then moved to the Career Awareness Exploring program where he served as a District Executive and later as District Director. After serving as the Queens Field Director, in 2005 John accepted the position of Borough Scout Executive and served until 2008.

In February of 2009, John began his tenure with the Theodore Roosevelt Council as a District Director serving two districts, with a total of 5,000 youth, 2,000 volunteers, and 120 units. Within 18 months John was promoted to Field Director, and one year later accepted the title and responsibilities of Assistant Scout Executive.

During his tenure as a Scouting professional John led and managed various camp staffs; including a Special Needs Boy Scout Camp, a Cub Resident Camp, Cub Day Camp, and Cub Family Weekends.

John is an Eagle Scout from Troop 429 in Queens, NY. He is a Vigil Honor member of the Order of the Arrow, Suanhacky Lodge, and recently completed his Woodbadge ticket in the Eagle Patrol, NE2-386-14. John is the proud father of an Eagle Scout, who has enlisted to join the Air Force, and is awaiting his call. His daughter recently graduated from SUNY Cortlandt, with a degree in Psychology. When John is not participating in Scouting, he enjoys photography, travel, attending sporting events, playing sports, and time with his family and friends.
